THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, TUESDAY, OCT. 24, 1865. NO. 292.

BY J. L. PENNINGTON.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—A bill authorizing the reception of negro testimony in the courts of Tennessee, passed the Senate of that State on the 15th inst. by ayes 10, nays 9.

— Gen. Beauregard is to be superintendent of the New Orleans and Jackson railroad.

— At the Fenian convention in Philadelphia, last week, Patrick J. Wheelan, a prominent Irish-American journalist, made his appearance, having just returned from a tour in Ireland, during which he was intimately connected with Irish Fenians, and informed himself of their plans. He reports the organization as powerful and under skillful leaders.

—It will be recollected that, during the conspiracy trial, two printers employed in the office of the Selma Dispatch, testified that George W. Gale was the author of an advertisement which appeared in the Dispatch, soliciting contributions of a million dollars with which to procure the assassination of President Lincoln and certain members of his Cabinet. Gale was in Washington when the testimony was given, and had engaged counsel to conduct his case, in the event of his trial in Washington. But he was removed South, where he has ever since been in confinement. Recently the President ordered that he be transferred to a civil instead of a military court for trial, in Alabama.

—The freedmen's bureau at Washington has received intelligence that John Davis, brother of Jeff., has written an important letter to an officer of the freedmen's bureau of the State of Mississippi, in which he demands the restoration of not only his own but his brother's land on the Mississippi river, which is now profitably cultivated, as it has been for two years, by most promising colony of active, energetic, intelligent and thrifty freedmen. So the Washington correspondents say.

— Forty millions of the new issue of fifty million Five-Twenty Bonds, for funding compound interest notes and certificates of indebtedness, have been taken. At this rate the entire issue will be taken in a few days.

— A register has been compiled in the War Department, and is now in the hands of the printer, which gives the name and rank of every volunteer officer who served since the commencement of the late war. The register contains also such other official information concerning each officer as can be of any interest to him or his friends.

—A post office has been established at Deep River, Guilford county, in this State, and Elihu E. Mendenhall appointed postmaster.

—The Troy papers state that Rev. Mr. Cahart, of that city, has disposed of the patent for an oscillating steam valve of his invention for the snug little sum of one hundred thousand dollars.

—That "private dinner" given to Hon. A. H. Stephens, at the Revere House, was, indeed, very private, as the entire company present, according to the Boston Traveller, consisted of three persons.

— Some of the papers announce that Mrs. Caroline Warden, of Medford, Mass., after a ride in the horse-car, Saturday, found that there was a diamond ring in her pocket. She remembers a fleshy chap sitting at her side, and as her pocket-book, with a few notes in it, was gone, it is supposed the ring accidentally slipped from his finger when abstracting it. The ring is stated to be worth $250.

— Senator Wilson has written a letter, in which he expresses a confident opinion as to the complete success of the Republican party, both in New York and New Jersey, at the ensuing elections.

— William F. Lynch, formerly a captain in the U. S. Navy, and latterly holding the position of flag officer or commodore in the confederate navy, died at Baltimore on the 18th inst.

— Gen. Grant has two sons at the Burlington, N. J., college. The old warsman and his lady visited them last week.

— Seven regiments of Northern negro troops have been disbanded at Brownsville, Texas, and sent to their homes.

CLEMENCY.—The Richmond Whig says :—"Jefferson Davis, late President of the Confederate States, and Charles Clarke, late Governor of Mississippi, commanded the First and Second regiments of Mississippi Rifleman in the Mexican war. The name of those two regiments is historic. While their commanders are incarcerated in powerful fortifications, let some of the glory they added to the old flag" speak in behalf of clemency."

The President is daily in receipt of memorials in behalf of Jeff. Davis. A few days ago, Judge Phillips, of Alabama, at the request of the petitioners, presented one signed by nearly five thousand ladies of Georgia, and on Monday an anonymous communication, eight pages long, apparently written by a female, was received, appealing for mercy for Davis on the ground that he had rendered valuable service to the country in various public positions, as Cabinet officer, and fought bravely in the Mexican war; that he was no more criminal than the others who figured in the rebellion, and who have been pardoned.

The Lawrence (Mass.) American tells a story of the marriage in that city of a couple, the bridegroom being from Wisconsin, and the bride a resident of Lawrence. Immediately after marriage the lady told her newly wedded husband that she was unworthy of him, giving reasons which emphatically proved the statement; said she loved another; that she was coerced into the marriage and would not live with her husband, and the two thereupon parted, the lady meantime being formally disowned by her parents.

COMET ENDANGERING THE EARTH.—Southey, in his "Common Place Book," relates that in A. D. 1712, Whiston predicted that the comet would appear on Wednesday, 14th October, at five minutes after five in the morning, and that the world would be destroyed by fire on Friday following. His reputation was high, and the comet appeared. A number of persons got into boats and barges on the Thames, thinking the water the safest place. South Sea and India stock fell. A captain of a Dutch ship threw all his powder into the river, that the ship might not be endangered. At noon, after the comet had appeared, it is said that more than one hundred clergymen were ferried over to Lambeth, to request that proper prayers might be prepared, there being none in the church service. People believed that the day of judgment was at hand, and some acted on this belief, more as if some temporary evil was to be expected. On Thursday, more than 7000 kept mistresses were publicly married. There was a prodigious run on the bank; Sir Gilbert Heathcote, at that time head director, issued orders to all the fire offices in London, requiring them to keep a good lookout, and have a particular eye upon the bank of England.

The Piedmont Railroad was taken possession of some months since by the agents of the United States government, under the impression that it was built by the Confederate States, and justly confiscatable under the acts of Congress. Governor Pierpoint, of Virginia, and Dr. Powell, of North Carolina, have succeeded in satisfying the authorities that it was built by the Danville Railroad corporation and never passed out of its possession. The rebel government offered to advance a million dollars for its construction, taking the bonds of the Danville road therefor; but the offer was declined. The Piedmont road will therefore be delivered to its former owners.

Rebel Emigrants to Brazil—A Settlement of Missourians—How They Get to Brazil and How They Fare.

Dr. John H. Bliss, of Missouri, is writing to the St. Louis Republican a series of letters from Rio Janeiro, descriptive of the adventures of the emigrants from the South who have settled in Brazil. He says:

Judge John Guillet, an old and highly esteemed citizen of Carroll county, with several families and a Mr. Reavis, of Cooper county, Missouri, with his interesting family, are now here (August), making about forty North Americans in all, the nucleus of a good settlement around Col. M. L. Swain, of Louisiana, who has located and paid for a body of land on the Assunguy, a branch of the Serro Negro river, which empties into this bay from the northwest, and which is the only practicable route to the mines and to the rich open country beyond. We have already houses and a little store, and will soon have a blacksmith shop and a school house, the government giving us five hundred milreis a year to support a school. We have small crops of corn, beans and potatoes growing finely and expect to keep ahead of the wants of new comers in the way of food. All of this dates from about the time I came into the bay, a period of less than three months.

Judge Guillet and the others say all the expense which they had with their personal effects was to New York, whence vessels have room enough, and charge nothing extra for bringing them to Paranagua, from which we are distant across the bay, northward, forty miles. They advise the shipment of all clothes, tools, and everything portable, which may be on hand, and cannot be sold for a fair price, as farmers and others will find everything useful here to which they have been accustomed, and perhaps find it dearer and inferior. Clothing is cheap enough here, coming from England and France, but blankets and bedclothes are always wanted in a new settlement. Game is plenty and a shot gun would not be amiss.

Express companies ought to send movables through to New York with dispatch, but they charge much more than commission merchants. In either case, bind the parties to deliver them by a specified time, and examine the packages before paying charges in New York, to see that they are not broken open or injured. Any respectable commission merchant in St. Louis or elsewhere ought to arrange all these matters better than I can.

You ought to have some friend or agent in New York to find you board or lodgings, or you may suffer from it. So, also, you ought to engage passage to Rio from some responsible ship agent or owner, who will stipulate demurrage, if you are detained on expenses.

When emigrants arrive in Rio they can go to the emigrant house in Praia Formosa, where the government has furnished comfortable quarters for them, except bedding and cooking utensils, at forty cents a day each, till they are sent forward gratis on the first steamer to their destination. The vexation of two dollars, gold, apiece for Brazilian passports from the consuls in the ports of the United States is not yet done away with, as it should be, in the case of bona fide emigrants; but a man and his whole family pass together, so that the expense is inconsiderable. I have written to have the whole fee remitted.

I opened a correspondence with Senor Maroondes, the Minister of Agriculture, and obtained the favorable concessions. And I have taken pains to impress the Brazilians with the fact that this is no colonization scheme, to empty poor houses and penitentiaries on their shores, and to tell our countrymen at Rio that it is no speculation of myself nor any other individual; but an emigration of independent families, like the pioneers of Kentucky and Tennessee, whom the fortunes of a deplorable war have made refugees and who seek here an asylum. We believe in the future greatness of Brazil, and are willing to brave the ocean and the wilderness to begin a new and prosperous career under the patronage of the good Emperor, whose character, in the estimation of all parties, is most saintly.

EXCHANGE HOTEL, RALEIGH, N. C.,
October 17, 1865.

MR. EDITOR:—Aware that virtue always has its reward, whether known or unknown, yet it becomes every one to speak of marked incidents and instances when this reward is especially due.

It is a common opinion that the Northerners and ourselves will never again harmonize; that neither side care for the other; and even that irritation is intentionally practiced daily in order to widen the breach.

Having the pleasure of being a boarder at this most accommodating and prosperous house, and seeing constantly the intercourse existing between Northerners and Southerners, I can safely say it seems the sincere desire of these strangers amongst us to render themselves truly agreeable in courtesies and intelligent conversation, and, as far as by me seen, is likewise responded to by the other party. I am very glad to see it, because deeming it both a political and moral duty.

But my article to-day is designed more especially for reference to our most worthy Provost Marshal, Captain George L. Montgomery, of Detroit, whose constant wish is to serve all coming before him for relief of any kind, and most strikingly careful to be prompt and earnest in answering every call the peculiar institution of the Confederate population makes upon him in his official capacity.

This, his natural and uniform conduct has so struck me, that I cannot forbear speaking of it, and trust he will pardon me for so doing, as I know he would not consent to praise if he knew of its application to him.

May he continue thus in the office so adorned by him, and set a good example to all in like position; while the army remains may there be no change in our Provo, and when he leaves may it be to find happiness wherever he goes. CONFEDERATE.

—George N. Sanders, in his greed for notoriety, was "kidnapped," it will be remembered, at Montreal, and was rescued at the toll-gate by the timely and pre-arranged presence of police who overhauled the carriage. The case has just undergone judicial examination, and the only sufferers seem to have been the jury, who were locked up over Sunday and finally discharged because they could not agree. It was shown by Sanders' own testimony to have been a "made up" affair. George acknowledged that he wanted to exhibit himself in St. Lawrence Hall with handcuffs. Not a particle of evidence was offered to show that the kidnappers were United States agents; and the counsel for their defence urged with reason that Sanders was a fellow conspirator, equally liable with themselves to any charge of disturbing the peace.

— Gen. Sheridan is on an excursion to the western terminus of the Missouri Pacific Railroad.

THE CITY.

☞Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

THE TIME.—Through some instrumentality to us unknown, the pendulum and hammer of the town clock moved yesterday and the merry tones of olden times fell upon ears that had not heard such music for many months. "Egad," exclaimed a grey-haired citizen, "we have a live board of commissioners; they are not dead, but have been sleeping, and now, like men, awaken to a just sense of duty. They have given us a sufficiently numerous police force, if kept up to their duty; and now they propose to repair the cemetery and town o'clock."

The old gentleman aforesaid at once proceeded to the Yarborough Saloon and drank the health of the town authorities. We hope his prognostications may be realized to the full measure of his expectations. They have authority—let them exercise it judiciously and at once.

We must put in a plea for the board with those who have been disposed to charge the members of it with gross incompetency. The corporation has, like individuals, been oppressed for means, and this fact pleads largely in extenuation of apparent legislative delinquencies. But the people have in their complaints manifested readiness to be taxed rather than that law and order should be overthrown; the institutions of the city permitted to decay; and person and property have no security. Having the support of the people, they may now venture to take hold of the reins of government firmly and show themselves reformers of the first type.

GOING TO WORK.—Judge Reade, in his farewell address to the State Convention, referring to the future of the African race, beautifully and with truth affirmed that we would in time to come as in years past, prove to be their best friends. We have entire confidence that the action of the southern people in the premises will clearly substantiate the prediction. In the direction of their education, especially in the principles of sound morality, we hear that in at least one congregation of Raleigh there is a fixed determination among the white members to organize a sabbath school for freed men and women, as well as juvenile piccaninnies. A number of the ladies connected with the denomination express entire concurrence and promise their cordial co-operation in the undertaking when the work is begun.

This scheme will doubtless secure the approbation of all christian minds, not only in our community but throughout the State. The plan is an admirable one and promises not only to promote the spiritual, but temporal interests of the negro race. We must give them a higher idea of moral obligation; a more perfect comprehension of social ethics; and by every well considered step advance them in the estate of manhood.

GREAT SPORT.—We see that Mr. O'Daniels has engaged an opera troupe, which appears to-night at Market Hall. The bill which is offered presents a goodly number of attractive features and if concert-goers turn-out they will doubtless hear some good music. No one can deny that Wilcox plays the violin with rare power, while Dudley excels in all those "light, fantastic toe" arts which appertain to fancy dancing. The other members of the troupe are of good repute and "burnt cork" will probably be in the ascendant this evening.

Of one thing we feel confident: Mr. O'Daniel, the manager, is competent to direct such a company acceptably to the musical public by preventing disappointments and interdicting those gross jests which, while they have no merit as witticisms, offend good taste and disgust refined sensibility. No such practice, we are assured, will distinguish the series of entertainments which are prospected this week, and with this promise as the warrant for it, we commend the Raleigh Minstrels to the patrons of song, the dance, and imitations of plantation life in the sunny South.

LADIES' ASSOCIATION.—We have always contended that the ladies were not only purer, but more energetic than men. This has been exemplified in a thousand forms time and again. We have no idea that our fair friends here intend that Richmond shall excel them in brave and good deeds, and we call to them in each religious denomination to form societies to aid theological students and domestic missions. In such an enterprise they might accomplish much in behalf of religion and while thus practically illuminating their own christianity, send the word of life to others. Organize and have your regular meetings from this time forward.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.—Yesterday morning Dr. E. Burke Haywood, of this city, performed a most successful operation for a gentleman here, cutting from his neck a very troublesome tumor. Our friend assures us that he experienced the least possible pain and since the incisions will little regret has left no inconvenience.

THOS. ELLIS is a candidate for the Rockingham District to the House of Commons.

THE GENTLEMAN MURDER.—We mentioned some time since, immediately after the sad occurrence, the murder of Rev. Mr. Castleman, an Episcopalian minister, at Summit Point, near Gaston. The whole affair was then shrouded in mystery, but it now seems that an intelligent theory has been promulgated with respect to the dreadful transaction. About three weeks since, a portion of the cotton on a freight train took fire, a note of which we made at the time, and to save the remainder that part which had ignited was hurriedly cast overboard. There was no roof or shelter near for storage, and the cotton was left by the roadside in an exposed condition. The present high price of the article excited the cupidity of an individual in the neighborhood, and he was not slow to avail himself of so favorable an opportunity to pilfer the exposed cotton. These thefts, which are said to have been conducted chiefly at night, were brought to the knowledge of the Rev. Mr. Castleman, who at once proceeded to acquaint the owner of the cotton with the facts. The suspected party, we learn from the Petersburg Express, has been heard to often vow vengeance upon the informer, but Mr. Castleman, who was as fearless as he was just and upright, paid no attention to the matter.

On the night of the assassination, Mr. Castleman went to the house of his friend and neighbor, Mr. W. K. Broadnax, took tea, and sat until bedtime, engaged in pleasant conversation. When he arose to depart, the family importuned him to remain all night. He declined, stating that his own family would certainly expect him. He was then laughingly told that his life had been threatened. This he received with great calmness, remarking, that as he had never injured any one, he presumed there were none who would injure him.

In accordance with his determination, Mr. Castleman left the house of his friend for home. That home he never reached alive. His family anxiously awaited his arrival through all the long night. He never came. At early morn a messenger was dispatched to the home of the friend, whither he had declared his intention of going the evening previous. On the route the mangled body of the worthy man was found, perforated by a bullet, evidently fired in close proximity, as the wadding was in the clothing. No sooner than the matter became known, the man who stole the cotton and made the threats disappeared.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N C.

TUESDAY, OCT. 24, 1865.

NATIONAL UNION ANDREW JOHNSON TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR:

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

Election Thursday, 9th November, 1865.

FOR CONGRESS:

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT,

COL. J. P. H. RUSS,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

"Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever."—ANDREW JOHNSON TO GOV. HOLDEN.

Jonathan Worth, and the "Sentinel," the organ of the disaffected faction that brought him forward for Governor, are in favor of taxing the people to pay the rebel State debt.

Popular Journalism.

We do not wish to brag at the expense of our neighbors, but the pressure of advertisements upon our columns is the best evidence of the popularity and prosperity of the DAILY PROGRESS. Our advertising patrons have crowded our space until we have none scarcely left for reading matter, and we are now making the necessary arrangements to enlarge and otherwise improve the paper. THE DAILY PROGRESS is one of the permanent fixtures of the city of Raleigh, we expect to remain here and devote all our time and energies to its management, and mean to spare nothing in the way of labor or expense to render it in all respects worthy of that confidence and extensive patronage it has received. The improvements spoken of will be made within the course of a few weeks, when we shall be prepared to accommodate all advertising patrons, and hope to be able to place the paper within the reach of all classes.

We have the most extensive and best appointed job office in the city, and do all kinds of printing at the lowest possible rates.

THE burden of the song of the Sentinel and other Copperheads, before the publication of President Johnson's telegram to Gov. Holden, was the sacred duty devolving on the people to pay the rebel State debt, but since the declaration of the President that "every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever," they are silent as the grave. How is this? In the early part of the Convention we heard of nothing else, and they were actually trying to work it into a hobby to catch votes; but now that the position taken by the Editor of this paper has been approved and is to be sustained by the President of the United States, we hear no more about the disgrace of repudiating the rebel State debt. The harp of a thousand strings is hushed, and silence reigns in the disaffected camp—at least in so far as the redemption of the bonds issued by rebel authority to prosecute the war is concerned.

UNDER the head of "The Situation" the organ of all the Copperheads is jubilant over its private correspondence and claims a number of counties for Mr. Worth. We suppose this "situation" speculation is about as reliable as the marvellous tales the same class of journals used to give us about the slaying of ten thousand Yankees in one day. The fact is, the secession papers and writers got so badly demoralized during the war, misrepresentation becoming a kind of second nature with them, that no reform or improvement need be expected from the present generation. Like Ephriam they are joined to their idols, and missionaries and moral reformers may as well let them alone. We hardly think the habitues of the Copperhead headquarters on Fayetteville street will have much cause to rejoice at the political situation after the 9th of November.

WE learn from a gentleman just from the North that at Washington much concern is felt relative to the elections in this State. The opposition to Gov. Holden is attributed, by those who control the government, to disaffection and treason, and should he be defeated the impression is that it will continue military rule and set the State back at least two years in the work of reconstruction. These things are so, and the people of North Carolina should throw faction to the dogs and rally to the man who can do most for them in this terrible crisis. Elect Governor Holden and all will go well—the State will be restored to the Union, the troops will be withdrawn and we may hope for peace and prosperity; but defeat him and all is lost.

THE Sentinel and the supporters of Mr. Worth are for taxing the people to pay the rebel State debt of twenty million dollars, which, should they succeed, would break up half the men in the state for the benefit of a few speculators who hold the bonds. Let the people remember this when they go to the polls and vote for Holden. The National Union men are opposed to taxing the people to pay any rebel debts created for the prosecution of the war. Elect Holden and we go back into the Union, but elect Worth and the most intelligent and best informed believe we stay out.

[BY AUTHORITY.]

Ordinances and Resolutions Passed by the North-Carolina State Convention, First Session 1865.

AN ORDINANCE

Submitting to the qualified voters of the State the ratification or rejection of certain ordinances.

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That on the second Thursday of November next, shall be submitted to the voters of the State qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons, for their ratification or rejection, the ordinance passed by this convention entitled "an ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861," and such persons as shall favor the ratification shall vote a ticket in the words, "Anti-Secession Ordinance Ratified," and those opposed shall vote a ticket in the words, "Anti-Secession Ordinance Rejected." Also, at the same time, shall be submitted for their ratification or rejection an ordinance passed by the convention, entitled "an ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina," and those who favor a ratification of the same shall vote a ticket with the words "Anti-Slavery Ordinance Ratified," and those opposed shall vote a ticket with the words "Anti-Slavery Ordinance Rejected."

Be it further ordained, That the Sheriffs or other officers who may ascertain the result of the polls in each county, shall transmit the same to the Provisional Governor, who is hereby empowered and requested to cause the number of votes each way to be ascertained and proclaimed through as many as three newspapers published in different parts of the State.

Be it further ordained, That, if ratified, thenceforth said ordinances shall be the laws of the land, and that abolishing slavery shall become a part of the Constitution of the State.

[Read three times and ratified in convention October 17th, A. D., 1865.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

To protect the owners of property and for other purposes.

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina, in convention now assembled, and it is hereby ordained, That the persons appointed by the Provisional Governor Judges of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer, are hereby invested with power to exercise severally at their chambers, all such powers and authorities as by the laws of the State are conferred on the Judges of the Superior Courts of law and equity at chambers, and may issue writs of injunction, sequestration, ne exeat and capias, under the rules and regulations prescribed in chapter thirty-two of the revised Code, for the purpose of protecting and securing against loss or damage the owner of any kind of estate, real, personal or mixed, or the creditor of any person whatever; and to this end may make all necessary rules, orders and decrees; for disobedience whereof the party offending may be attached for contempt.

Be it further ordained, That said Judges may depute any person to execute the process issued by them, and may appoint a clerk when necessary. They may prescribe, in each case, the time within which the process issued by them shall be served and the defendant shall appear.

Be it further ordained, That when any defendant shall be enjoined or restrained, unless in case of irreparable injury, and such defendant will enter into bond with ample security, payable to the plaintiff in double the amount of the sworn value of the property, conditioned that if said property or any part thereof should be the property of the plaintiff, the defendant will pay to the plaintiff the value thereof, with twenty-five per cent. added thereto, and interest on the amount, and all the costs incurred by him, the property may, in the discretion of the Court, be delivered to said defendant, and the bond to the plaintiff, who may bring suit thereon: Provided, always, if the defendant should not appear and execute such bond, it shall, nevertheless, be in the power of the Court to make all necessary decrees, rules and orders for preserving the property, or its value, for the rightful party, by sale and keeping the proceeds or otherwise, to abide the final decree.

Be it further ordained, That said Judges may issue process for the arrest of persons violating the criminal law, and may grant writs of habeas corpus and take bail; and the recognizances shall be returned to the proper Courts; they may also take and certify the probate of deeds and the privy examinations of femes covert in the manner prescribed by law.

Be it further ordained, That the General Assembly shall make suitable compensation to said Judges for the services which they may render under this ordinance, and all such persons as may be employed by them in the discharge of the duties hereby imposed on them.

Be it further ordained, That so soon as the Superior Courts shall be restored the duties herein prescribed for the Judges aforesaid shall cease and the cases before them shall be transferred by them into the Courts of Equity of the proper counties, and the latter Courts shall proceed with them as if the said proceedings had been authorized and had been begun in said Courts.

[Ratified in convention, this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

EWDIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

THE WAY THE EXCHANGE OF "POLITICAL PRISONERS" WAS CONDUCTED.—The following is the letter, in full, of Mr. Robert Ould, Confederate Commissioner of Exchange of Prisoners, submitted in the Wirz trial on Wednesday:

CITY POINT, March 17, 1863.

Brigadier General Winder:

Sir—A flag of truce boat has arrived with three hundred and fifty political prisoners—General Barrow and several other prominent men amongst them.

I wish you to send me, at 4 o'clock Wednesday morning, all the military prisoners (excepting officers) and all the political prisoners you have. If any of the political prisoners have on hand proof enough to convict them of being spies, or of having committed other offences which should subject them to punishment, so state opposite their names. Also state whether you think, under all the circumstances, they should be released. The arrangement I have made works largely in our favor. We get rid of a set of miserable wretches, and receive some of the best material I ever saw.

Tell Captain Turner to put down on the list of political prisoners the names of Edward G. Eggling and Eugenia Harmmermister. The President is anxious they should get off. They are here now. This, of course, is between ourselves. If you have any female political prisoner whom you can send off safely to keep her company, I would like you to send her.

Two hundred and odd more political prisoners are on their way.

I would be more full in my communication if I had time.

Yours truly,

ROBERT OULD,
Agent of Exchange.

— General Rufus Saxton, in a letter to the President of the National Freedmen's Relief Association, states that the freedmen in South Carolina are in a state of great destitution. Especially do they need clothing.

MAGNANIMITY.—On a recent occasion General Daniel E. Sickles said:

"If the victors are magnanimous, the vanquished will be loyal!"

Just so, and we doubt not but Andrew Johnson will pursue the liberal policy indicated.—The people must be trusted with their government, and the sooner the better. Should the southern states send the right kind of men to Congress, we doubt not but the readmission of the states will be followed by a proclamation of universal amnesty.

The secessionists are divided; some of them are advocating the claims of Mr. Worth for Governor, while others of their faith are running the claims of Judge Shepherd, of Cumberland. Running is about all either of them will do, for Gov. Holden's election, by an immense majority, is considered certain.

CORRESPONDENCE.

NEWBERN, N. C., Oct. 20, 1865.

Which said oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the House of Congress or department to which the said officer may appertain. And any person who shall falsely take the said oath, shall be guilty of perjury, and, on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office and rendered incapable forever after of holding any office or place under the United States.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!
LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug Business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts being successful—the articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing of the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements—but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and respectable dealers, believing, after so many years' exertions, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones.

Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Being personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and gratified at his success." WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 24 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful and it is ample evidence of the merits of his articles,—as in our whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising merely bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we see an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by stating the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.

The Great Invention of the Age in

Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

Another gentleman, in the same county, lost, about the same time, twenty-six negroes by escape to the free States. When he heard from them, after a period of thirty-one months, eight of the original number had died. Other similar examples might be given."

PROCLAMATION,

BY WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR,

TO THE

PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantees of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain oader among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor.

MR. EDITOR:—THE FOLLOWING IS STRANGE BUT TRUE.

'Twas late last night that I was sitting, in my chamber, lonely, knitting,
Knitting on the same old stocking, I'd commenced before the war;
Knitting carefully, I was heeling—when methought I heard one stealing,
Stealing softly up the stairway, leading to my chamber door.

This I thought, and listened more.

Soon I heard a gentle knocking—hastily I dropped my stocking;
Dropped my knitting—the old stocking I commenced before the war.
Again, and louder, came the rapping—as tho' they thought that I was napping,
Me a napping? Knitting, napping? Me who never—"Ope the door."

This the voice said—"Ope the door!!"

"'Tis Sally's voice"—says I—"'tis Sally, and I know she's got some news,
And I'm powerful glad she's come too, for I most did have the blues.
"Sally," says I, "Sally, how dye?" "What's the news? Do have a chair?"
"Glorious news, my Peggy darling—glorious news from Market Square,"

"From Shepherd's Store in Market Square."

At Shepherd's Store, they've got new shoes—such bran new, laced up, tasseled beauties.
Morocco, kid, and patent leather—Congress gaiters, toe-tipped bootees.
Balmoral, Prunello and Creole. Mens and womens, boys and girls;
Such a sight it is to behold—they're the cheapest in the world.

The very cheapest in the world.

And Peggy, dear, they've got new hats—military and civilian.
All the style of Frenchy fashion—a la Emp'reur Maximillian.
And I told my husband, Johnny, "throw aside that rusty beaver."
"Go to Shepherd's—market square—get a hat you gay deceiver,

Get a hat, and burn your beaver."

Well, Peg—John went to market square—he's just got back—rigged up so gay,
A bran new suit from top to toe—and cheap as dirt, for ready pay:
And I advise you, Peggy darling—to give what cash you've got to spare,
To your dear Bobby in the morning—and send him straight to Market Square"

To Shepherd's Store, in Market Square.

"I'll do it, Sally dear"—says I—I'll send Bob early in the morn,
I'll send him straight to Shepherd's Store—I will as sure as I am born,
Good-bye, dear Sally! Must you go? Yes—good-bye, Peggy—now take care,
Be sure that Bob finds the right place—'tis SHEPHERD'S STORE, at Market Square.
